

BONALDO

Acquerelli

Like overlapping brush-strokes, the colours enhance the hand-crafted workmanship of the blown glass, as they come together and interact with their surroundings: the Acquerelli hand blown glass lamp collection is available in table lamp models, floor lamps and suspension lamps, which stand out on account of the combination of glass lampshades and a matt lead-colour painted metal frame. The glass is available in milk white finish or, in the nuanced or striped version, in elegant petroleum or amber colours. The Acquerelli blown glass lamp comes in two sizes, large or small. In the table version, the two sizes correspond to two different lampshade shapes. In the suspension version, the double glass option is also available, with the small lampshade combined with the large one to create a single ceiling lamp that generates surprising interplays of light.
